experience the moment with worry-free travel

Wherever your journey takes you, TripAssist travel insurance* through AAA can add the peace of mind to help you to discover the world.

If you become sick or injured while traveling, or if circumstances force you to cancel or interrupt your trip, travel insurance can help. There's even a plan that can cover your kids at no additional cost.

Trip Cancellation Protection: Things happen. If you must cancel for a covered reason, your nonrefundable trip payments and deposits may be reimbursed. It's an essential benefit.

Trip Interruption Protection: Your trip starts on time then ends prematurely due to circumstances beyond your control. Don't worry. If you need to return home due to an interruption for a covered reason, this benefit can reimburse nonrefundable, unused trip costs and eligible additional expenses.

Medical Emergencies: Did you know that many personal health insurance plans, including Medicare, won't cover you overseas? It's true. Thankfully, this benefit provides protection for covered medical and dental emergencies that occur during your trip.

Additional Protection: Your policy can also include provisions for Baggage Loss/Damage, Travel Delays, Missed Connections, Change Fee Coverage and more.

Plus, it's comforting to know that help is just a phone call away with a 24-hour hotline to Allianz Global Assistance, AAA's travel insurance partner. And should you need to file a claim, your AAA Travel Agent can help coordinate the entire process. Really. It's that easy.
